

CHANGES

Whether you are a child or an adult, you change and develop all the time. Think about how you have changed over the last year. Make a note of your ideas below. You can draw extra arrows if you need.

Some things about a person do not change. Make a note of the things that have not changed.

