

Think about five things that make you happy. Although some of these may be special belongings or toys, try and also think about things that you do, or things that others do for you.

Draw five things that make you happy.

Things that make me happy.....

